3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,384 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

A quintessential California beach bungalow in Marina del Rey, one of the Westside's most coveted neighborhoods and school districts. Light pours through oversized windows into every room, highlighting the home's warm wood floors and airy layout. The three-bedroom floor plan includes a bright and spacious primary suite that opens directly to the lush backyard through sliding glass doors, offering seamless indoor-outdoor living. The kitchen updated with high-end appliances and a commercial-grade range offers everything needed for inspired at-home cooking, while a graceful hallway arch and brick fireplace hints at the home's original mid-century character. Outside, low-maintenance landscaping surrounds the home, creating a green oasis that feels peaceful and private. Under a mile from the Marina waterfront and just minutes to neighborhood parks and standout restaurants, this home strikes the perfect balance of cool, character-filled interiors and easy coastal living. Calling all investors and developers too: a rare opportunity to buy and hold, add an ADU, or expand the existing footprint.

Built in 1949
