3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,320 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Culver City,

Tucked away in a tranquil cul-de-sac, in the small residential enclave of Clarkdale, RINCONADA--meaning a quiet nook or secluded corner--is a hidden gem offering exceptional value to those seeking a balance of suburban calm and urban convenience. Shielded by a formidable sound wall along the 405, RINCONADA is a serene retreat found deep within one of Los Angeles' most beloved Westside neighborhoods. This fully redesigned and newly expanded 1947 California Bungalow, with 3 beds + 1.75 baths, feels remarkably peaceful, private, and still connected to everything there is to love about Culver City. Clean modern design meets warm Golden State charm across a seamless floor plan in this light-filled home with spacious rooms, brand new kitchen & bathrooms, and functional upgrades throughout. A striking double door welcomes you into an open living + dining room, complete with a swanky electric fireplace, that blends effortlessly with the generous kitchen and extends through wide sliding doors to the backyard. Lush greenery blankets the rear garden, punctuated by bright, beautiful blooms. A vibrant tree ring of impatiens and petunias thrives under the dappled and protective canopy of a towering native Coast Redwood. Two stately Palms stand guard, as mature vines climb the fortress wall, enhancing the sense of quietude and seclusion. Beyond the wooden privacy gate, an extended driveway presents an ideal spot for outdoor lounging and al fresco dining, while a detached garage provides extra flexibility for additional parking, storage, or even a future studio space/ADU. Centrally located, just minutes away from Downtown Culver City, the Culver City Unified School District campus, Sony Studios, Costco, and beloved Tito's Tacos. Hop on the Culver Blvd Pathway at the end of the block and grab a bite to eat at storied Hollywood haunt, Dear John's, right across the street! Make this home yours!

Built in 1947
