N/A, Los Angeles,

Designed by Stephen Alan Siskind in 1962, this Los Feliz retreat is made for those who truly appreciate mid-century architecture. Original bathrooms, warm hardwood floors, and signature '60s details preserve its charm, while upgraded appliances and a thoughtfully refreshed kitchen add modern comfort.

Expansive walls of glass envelop the home, bathing every room in natural light and perfectly framing the stunning views. Outside, ample exterior living spaces - including a balcony, a side patio with a fire pit, and lush, meticulously maintained landscaping - create an inviting setting for al fresco entertaining. A rare opportunity to live inside a piece of architectural history in the heart of Franklin Hills.
