Residential on 1 Acres

N/A, Santa Barbara,

Tucked away on one of Montecito's most sought-after streets, 608 Stone Meadow Lane offers an exquisite blend of privacy, charm, and effortless living. This beautifully remodeled single-level ranch-style home sits just off prestigious Picacho Lane, moments from the Upper Village and the acclaimed Montecito Union School. The residence features four bedrooms and three and a half bathrooms, all designed with an exceptional layout that maximizes comfort and flow. Recent upgrades include a new roof, a new HVAC system, and an updated electrical system enhancing modern comfort, efficiency, and peace of mind. Skylights and French doors flood the interiors with natural light, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor spaces. At the heart of the home, the bright and airy gourmet kitchen is bathed in sunlight from an impressive skylight. Custom cabinetry, top-tier appliances, and an intimate breakfast nook create an inviting space for both casual dining and refined entertaining. The formal dining room exudes charm with its beamed ceiling and French doors opening to serene outdoor areas. Set on a usable flat lot in this coveted location, the property feels expansive and versatile, offering a sense of openness that sets it apart. The grounds feature a custom pool, jacuzzi, bocce court, and sport court, framed by lush landscaping, mature privacy hedges, vibrant garden beds, and an array of fruit trees. Lovely mountain views provide a serene backdrop to both the front and backyards, creating a tranquil retreat in the heart of Montecito.
