N/A, Los Angeles,

Reimagined by House of Rolison, this gated Sunset Plaza retreat blends historic charm with bold, modern drama, creating a home that feels both curated and effortless. Set securely behind gates and a private brick motor court with ample parking, the residence unfolds in layers of reclaimed materials, heritage details, and contemporary updates that give the home a rare balance of character and ease. The skylit kitchen is a centerpiece, finished in striking Viola marble and custom oak cabinetry, with new, top-of-the-line appliances seamlessly integrated throughout. A custom bar anchors the formal living room, while dining and lounge areas shift between moody and bright, including a warm living space centered on a statement fireplace framed in Delft tile. Upstairs, the secluded primary suite offers a retreat of its own, tucked away to create a sense of privacy and calm. Finished with tailored details and a spa-like bath, it's designed as a personal sanctuary above the city. Each of the home's four bedrooms includes its own en suite bathroom, with a total of five baths providing both comfort and privacy for family and guests. A rare lower-level basement provides additional storage or utility space, a practical bonus in the Hollywood Hills. Outdoors, the property is designed for entertaining and everyday living, with a full outdoor kitchen, pool, spa, wood-burning fireplace, and a lower yard surrounded by mature landscaping. This is House of Rolison reimagined living, a home where character is preserved, spaces are elevated, and every detail feels intentional. A rare gated offering in the Hollywood Hills, 1524 Sunset Plaza stands as both a sanctuary above the city and a showcase of design-driven living, just minutes from the Sunset Strip.
