N/A, Culver City,

Elegant Mid-Century in Culver City's Coveted Carlson Park. Nestled south of Braddock in one of Culver City's most sought-after neighborhoods, this beautiful Mid-Century residence perfectly balances timeless character with modern sophistication. Step into the light-filled living room, where newly refinished hardwood floors, fresh designer paint, and an expansive picture window frame views of the gated front garden and tree-lined street. The kitchen features crisp white cabinetry and a professional-grade Viking refrigerator, flowing seamlessly into the dining area. French doors extend the space outdoors to a private patio, creating an effortless indoor-outdoor living experience. The generous primary suite also opens through French doors to the backyard, offering a serene retreat. Designed for both relaxation and entertaining, the lush outdoor sanctuary showcases a built-in barbecue, al fresco dining space, and a spacious turf lawn surrounded by mature trees and privacy hedges. A detached garage, thoughtfully finished with polished concrete floors and French doors, provides endless possibilities as a home office, gym, or creative studio. Located within the boundaries of Culver City's award-winning schools and moments from the vibrant heart of downtown with its renowned restaurants, boutiques, weekly Farmers Market, and nearby major studios including Apple, Amazon, HBO, and Sony this home is a rare offering in an exceptional neighborhood.
