N/A, Venice,

Welcome to a rare fusion of art, architecture, and coastal living. Just moments from the sand and Abbot Kinney Blvd, this exquisitely reimagined residence offers a lifestyle as vibrant as its surroundings. Originally designed by celebrated contemporary artist Martha Alf, the home itself is a work of art. Flooded with natural light through soaring windows and crowned by 30-foot ceilings, the living room evokes the grandeur of a gallery, yet remains warm and livable, a true canvas for your life and your art collection. The chef's kitchen is both a showpiece and a gathering place, with Wolf appliances, Sub-Zero refrigeration, and a striking marble island anchoring the open-concept design. Upstairs, two en-suite bedrooms provide serene retreats, each blending luxury finishes with an effortless sense of calm. On the ground level, a fully self-contained one-bedroom ADU with private entrance offers endless flexibility, perfect for guests, extended family, or creative work. Complete with its own kitchen, walk-in closet, and spa-inspired bath, it mirrors the same level of refinement found throughout the main residence. Indoor and outdoor living flow seamlessly, with glass accordion doors opening onto a private patio and front patio ideal for entertaining. The rooftop terrace crowns the experience, offering panoramic views that stretch from the Pacific Ocean to the city skyline, a breathtaking backdrop for sunset soires or quiet reflection. With an attached two-car garage, dual laundry facilities, and every detail thoughtfully considered, this residence is more than a home, it's the Venice Beach lifestyle.
