5 Bedroom, 5.00 Bathroom, 4,103 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Manhattan Beach,

229 24th Street offers the perfect balance of refined coastal living and breathtaking panoramic ocean views, ideally situated on a coveted south-facing Walk Street.

Custom-built in 2009 with over 4,100 square feet of thoughtfully designed interior living space, this residence features five bedrooms and four-and-a-half baths, blending timeless craftsmanship with modern functionality. Every detail reflects quality and elegance, from the custom millwork, wrought iron accents, and walnut floors to antique French pavers, Kolbe & Kolbe exterior-clad windows, and solid Alder doors. The home's scale and natural light create a warm yet sophisticated atmosphere throughout. The top floor is designed for seamless entertaining with an open-concept layout featuring a chef's kitchen, expansive living and dining areas, and two separate patios framing dramatic ocean vistas. The primary suite is a private retreat complete with a spa-inspired bath and its own ocean-view patio, while three additional bedrooms on the second level offer generous scale, one with an en-suite bath. The ground level provides versatility and comfort with an additional guest bedroom, full bath, family room opening directly to the Walk Street patio, and a three-car garage with abundant storage. A convenient three-stop elevator connects all levels with ease. Lushly landscaped front yard with firepit is elevated to take advantage of the views. Perfectly located just two blocks from the sand and a short stroll to downtown

Manhattan Beach, this home combines luxury, lifestyle, and location into a rare offering.
