N/A, Los Angeles,

Charming lower Sunset Plaza jewel-box residence, originally envisioned by Robert Byrd AIA and thoughtfully reimaged by Bradley Adcock. Privately tucked away at the end of a cul-de-sac, the home sits behind a gated drive with a spacious motor court, offering serenity just minutes from the Sunset Strip. Inside, you will find refined details throughout - oak herringbone floors, French doors, picture windows filling the rooms with light, striking stonework, marble fireplaces, and inviting spaces ideal for entertaining. The main level boasts dual living rooms with soaring ceilings, an elevated formal dining area, a richly hued media room, and a bespoke bar. A spiral staircase from the curved kitchen descends to a hidden, prohibition-inspired wine cellar and tasting room. Occupying an entire floor, the primary suite impresses with 16-foot vaulted ceilings and a marble-clad bath overlooking the city. Outdoors, lush gardens surround the pool, spa, fire pit, and multiple sitting areas, creating a peaceful retreat. This one of a kind mini-compound offers a private oasis in the very heart of Los Angeles.
