N/A, Santa Monica,

Thoughtfully reinvented 1931 Santa Monica Spanish style-house. Truly magnificent, grounding, thoughtful design that only a talented architect could produce. The result will enhance the lifestyle of any lucky inhabitant. The relationship starts with the first glance at the exterior structure with the promise of home. When entering the house the open floor plan, combining the new state of the art kitchen and great room is sublime. The hardwood floors and Venetian plastered walls throughout support the welcoming organic surfaces. The comfortable bedroom and brand new bathroom inhabit the other side of the dwelling. The whole is flooded with natural light with easy access to the private outdoor spaces.

Built in 1931
