3 Bedroom, 3.00 Bathroom, 1,676 sqft

Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Celebrated in Domino for its artful renovation and magical garden by Terremoto, this 1938 home is a rare find in Echo Park. The light-filled interior features a formal entry with tile floors, an open living and dining area with a picture window and French doors leading to a deck with spectacular Observatory and sunset views; bamboo wood floors run throughout. The skylit chef's kitchen is outfitted with color-block cabinetry and stainless appliances. Bedrooms include a spacious ensuite and a second currently used as a den, along with an additional retreat that has its own entrance, bathroom, and a balcony shaded by a fig tree. The expansive verdant yard is set for gatherings and relaxation with a wood-fired pizza oven, cedar spa, outdoor shower, hammock zone, greenhouse, and a variety of fruit trees. Amenities include solar panels, driveway parking, central AC, and a separate laundry room/office. From this serene compound you're minutes from Elysian Park, Whole Foods, Canyon Coffee, and more.
