Tennis court estate on over half an acre designed in 1939 by renowned architect John Byers. This Dutch Colonial blends classic charm with modern luxury. Light-filled rooms, framed by Byers' signature windows, open to sweeping panoramic views of Los Angeles. Set on a private cul-de-sac above Sunset, the property offers resort-style living with a 50' lap pool, fire pit, fruit trees, and a championship-quality north-south tennis court. A guest cottage with full bath, designed by Nicholas/Budd Architects and built in 2014, complements the main home.
