Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Venice,

1233 Palms is a one of a kind magical artist compound and an extraordinary investment opportunity in one of Venice's most sought-after neighborhoods. This nearly 11,000-square-foot lot offers a rare chance to create a signature private estate or explore multi-phase redevelopment in a high-demand Westside market surrounded by newly built multi-million-dollar homes. The property currently consists of three structures. The main residence includes 2 bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, a den, and a rooftop observation deck, complemented by Japanese-inspired gardens. The second structure, designed by award-winning AIA architect Steven Ehrlich, provides a dramatic art studio/gallery space with soaring ceilings and abundant natural light. The third structure, also a studio, offers additional flexible square footage. The lot measures approximately 174 feet by 63 feet and is zoned LAR1, with alley access and no existing plans or entitlements, an ideal blank canvas for investors, developers, or end-users seeking to maximize value in a premier location. Large-scale lots of this size and zoning are increasingly scarce in Venice, making this a compelling opportunity to secure a generational asset with significant upside potential.
