Penthouse perfection. This architecturally distinguished residence crowns the building and commands sweeping city and hillside views. A private elevator opens directly into the home, creating an immediate sense of discretion and arrival. A sculptural spiral staircase leads to an expansive rooftop deck reserved for this residence alone, an ideal setting for quiet mornings and evening entertaining under the skyline. Designed by Wil Carson, the interiors blend graceful curves with warm contemporary finishes. European oak floors ground an open living and dining area that flows into a chef kitchen appointed with Calacatta Laza quartz counters and a waterfall island, Thermador appliances, custom white cabinetry, and a wine cooler. The flexible three bedroom plan is currently configured as two bedrooms plus a custom dressing room with extensive closet space and the third bedroom can be restored with ease. The serene primary suite offers generous wardrobes and a well appointed bath. Additional conveniences include in unit washer and dryer, mobile controlled security, and keyless entry for both the front door and the elevator. The building provides true privacy with controlled access that requires a fob for each floor and gated subterranean parking for two cars. From sunrise to sunset the penthouse frames remarkable views and delivers an elevated lifestyle moments from the Sunset Strip.
