N/A, Pacific Palisades,

This beautiful, single-level, midcentury residence blends panoramic views from downtown to the coastline and ocean - all on a street-to-street, corner lot set above the neighborhood on an over 12,000-square-foot promontory. Originally designed in 1973 to bring the vistas inside, the home showcases vaulted ceilings with exposed beams, walls of glass, and more. Through the gated entry, guests are welcomed past an outdoor foyer with a water feature into the open layout heart of the home; a formal living room with fireplace, original kitchen, and dining room - all oriented toward the views. Past the den (which could serve as a fourth bedroom), discover three bedrooms, including the primary suite with two closets, a bath with a shower and large vanity, and a private patio overlooking the views. The two guest bedrooms down the hallway share a hall bath with tub. The outdoors wrap around the home with multiple grassy areas, lounging spots, al-fresco dining areas, and newly landscaped grounds that thoughtfully combine mature plantings with fresh additions. Completing the property are a direct-access two-car garage, central air/heat, beautiful tile floors, new carpets in the bedrooms, a powder room, and more. Located off Lachman Lane among many still-standing homes, this stunning residence has been fully remediated and passed post-remediation testing. The property presents an excellent option in its current state, with the added potential to reimagine into the neighborhood's next great home.
