3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,861 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Located at the top of Mount Angelus, one of Highland Park's most coveted enclaves, this captivating c1957 Mid-Century modern home offers superb original details, endless natural sunlight, spectacular downtown skyline views, and total privacy; ensconced among tall trees on a street to street lot and feels like you have no neighbors. Enter the property from the end of the cul-de-sac at the peak of the hill on Wayland St, where there is a 2 car garage and two entrances at street level. (La Follette Drive is below the property.) Front walkway leads to main entrance and large living room with stunning character fireplace and hearth, original hardwood floors, ample dining area and spacious walk-out balcony with panoramic 180 views of greenery, architecture, and the hills-- capped by the downtown LA skyline. Kitchen with separate entrance offers new cork floors, new appliances and cool vintage cabinetry. Featuring hardwood floors and large windows framing breathtaking views, the primary suite is spacious and private. The lower level features a large family room with abundant custom shelving from HP's Matters of Space, and two exterior entrances: one entrance to the side stairs; plus sliders opening to large deck and yard/garden--perfect for outdoor entertaining. Built-ins; ironwork, magnesite stairs, original doors and many other details give this beautiful home a true classic feel. Large laundry and utility room also opens to the outside. Explore endless local eateries like Bub and Grandmas and Joy; and walk to rec center, music venues and theaters. Feel space, privacy and nature with the city at your fingertips: centrally located to downtown, Pasadena and Glendale.
