2 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,110 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Perched in the foothills of Mount Washington, this striking 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom mid-century modern hillside home offers high design, city views, and a dreamy, perfectly landscaped yard, a true tranquil refuge. The home offers a newly designed and renovated kitchen and bathrooms, featuring chic matte tile, Eny Lee Parker light fixtures, and Phylrich showerhead, faucet, and fixtures. The expertly curated, expansive backyard offers a series of intimate vignettes for relaxation and entertaining, including ample seating, an outdoor dining area, a dipping tub under a canopy of mature eucalyptus trees, olive trees, and an abundance of fruit trees. The main level opens to an airy, open-concept layout defined by vaulted wood-beamed ceilings, clerestory windows, and a dramatic wall of glass. The freshly reimagined kitchen with its custom cabinetry, tile countertops, and designer lighting anchors the living space and provides a dining area flanked by floor-to-ceiling windows. An upper-level patio extends off the kitchen, allowing a serene space to soak in the views with morning coffee. A fully renovated main floor bathroom features refined tilework and sleek fixtures, completing a level that feels both warm and sophisticated. The lower level features two spacious bedrooms, each with ample closet space, and a charming outdoor patio located off the primary bedroom. The shared bathroom has generous proportions, modern finishes, including a Kelly Wearstler light fixture, stone countertop, and Kohler hardware. Step outside into a garden that feels like its own hidden world, a lush, layered landscape filled with mature fruit trees, towering eucalyptus and acacia, and meandering passion fruit and star jasmine vines that drape with effortless beauty. Multiple seating areas are tucked throughout, inviting quiet mornings with coffee or long afternoons beneath the trees. A flagstone pathway winds through the designer-curated California and Australian native greenery, leading to a 10-foot filtered cowboy tub set perfectly for stargazing nights, while expansive decks and shaded nooks offer space to dine, gather, or simply breathe it all in. It's a rare and romantic outdoor sanctuary alive with texture, scent, and soul. This Mt. Washington residence offers an elevated lifestyle in one of Northeast LA's most sought-after enclaves. Enjoy easy access to the best of the vibrant Eastside culinary scene, including Barra Santos, Wife & Somm, Dunsmor, Little Ripper, and The Grant. Begin the day with coffee from Loquat before exploring nearby Moon Canyon Park or the trails of Elyria Canyon. A home of striking form and function, it embodies the ideal fusion of modern design, California hillside living, and outdoor splendor.
