N/A, Culver City,

Charming 1913 Craftsman Duplex in the Heart of Culver City. Step into a lovingly restored 1913 Craftsman perfectly positioned on one of downtown Culver City's most coveted, palm-lined streets near Carlson Park. Just moments from award-winning restaurants, trendy coffee shops, theaters, and vibrant nightlife, this rare property blends historic charm with modern updates. The main home features 2 bedrooms plus a den/office and a spacious sunroom filled with natural light. An original vintage front door welcomes you into the bright living room with gleaming hardwood floors, a classic brick fireplace, wood-framed windows, and elegant crown molding. The formal dining room boasts rich stained-wood wainscoting and double-hung windows, while the kitchen offers crisp white shaker cabinetry, quartz countertops, a convenient laundry nook, and an adjacent den. The updated bathroom showcases a tiled tub/shower and a stylish new vanity. Behind the main home, a private 1-bedroom, 1-bath unit provides its own sunny living room with hardwood floors, wood windows, a galley kitchen with washer/dryer, and endless possibilities for extended family, guests, or rental income. A grassy backyard, detached carport, and large lot offer plenty of space to relax or expand. With desirable R4 zoning allowing up to four units, the property also presents an exceptional development opportunity build a duplex or even a townhome project on one of downtown Culver City's few A+ streets.
