N/A, Los Angeles,

Do you hear that? That's the sound of your heart fluttering as soon as you laid your eyes on this darling duplex. This remastered complex still holds onto some of that vintage charm we all love. As soon as you step foot through the privacy gate, this little wonderland is waiting for you. Instantly, you'll notice the flooring that bounces natural light all around the home. The living room features recessed lighting, a ceiling fan, and a ductless AC unit. Pass through the curved archway and you're in your snazzy dining room. Don't need a dining room? Use this as an office, second seating area, or reading room. With a large closet and built-in cabinet, there are so many possibilities. Through the dining room, we enter into the recently updated kitchen. It features stainless steel appliances, sleek new countertops and cabinetry, updated flooring, and your very own stacked washer and dryer tucked into the space. With all of those upgrades, there's still room to spare. Just add a bistro table or kitchen island to finish it off. Heading down the hallway, you'll come across the bathroom with a refreshed vanity and glass standing shower. At the very end of the hall is your spacious bedroom that features a walk-in closet, ductless AC unit, and access to your backyard. And speaking of the backyard, it has been fully reimaged and now feels like your own slice of Palm Springs. With fresh landscaping, turf, a patio space, and a gorgeous new pergola with string lights, it's made for lounging, grilling, and gathering with friends. Whether it's a sunny brunch or a chill night under the stars, this space is ready for it. Last but not least, let's talk neighborhood. So many hidden hangouts like Dollar Hits, Woon, B , and more when you venture just outside Historic Filipinotown, too. Not to mention, Griffith Park, the LA River bike path, Dodger Stadium, Chinatown, Los Feliz, and Frogtown are all about 15 minutes away. Can't decide where to go? That's ok. You can sit outside in your yard with a blanket, a good book, and a freshly brewed cup of tea. Just take in nature in the comfort of your own home. What are you waiting for?
