N/A, Los Angeles,

A storybook white picket fence and leafy trees welcome you to this enchanting home on one of Mar Vista's most beloved streets, 3379 Stewart Avenue. From the moment you step onto the inviting front porch, you'll feel the warmth and ease of a true neighborhood gem, where the pace slows and the sense of community shines. Inside, natural light pours through oversized windows, dancing across rich wood floors and filling the living room with an effortless glow. Gather around the classic fireplace or enjoy the seamless flow into the thoughtfully designed kitchen, complete with custom cabinetry, stone counters, and a built-in corner dining nook perfect for morning coffee or cozy dinners. This three-bedroom, two-bath residence offers comfort and character in equal measure. French doors from the primary bedroom open to a whimsical, sun-dappled backyard a private haven for relaxation or lively weekend entertaining. Whether it's quiet evenings under the string lights or brunch with friends, this space was made for moments that linger. A detached garage adds versatility and potential ideal for a creative studio, home gym, or future ADU. With its idyllic curb appeal, timeless charm, and proximity to Mar Vista's parks, local cafes, and vibrant community, this home captures the essence of Westside living at its most welcoming.
