N/A, Los Angeles,

Step into this storybook 3-bedroom, 2-bath Craftsman bungalow, beautifully renovated while honoring every bit of its original 1909 character. Upon entry, the home exudes warmth and craftsmanship: built-ins with original leaded glass flank a cozy central fireplace, while coffered ceilings and period-inspired light fixtures bring a touch of timeless sophistication to every room. An oversized dining room invites gatherings beneath gorgeous beams, and the refreshed kitchen blends classic charm with modern updates - new quartz countertops, sink, stainless steel stove, hood, dishwasher, and recessed lighting. Freshly painted inside and out, the home feels both lovingly preserved and newly alive. Both bathrooms feature brand-new vanities, and the entire home also sports new luxury vinyl flooring throughout. Outside, new drought-resistant landscaping surrounds fully gated front and back yards with an electric gate for added privacy and ease. A dedicated laundry room adds everyday convenience, and the oversized finished garage, already equipped with electrical, brims with the potential to become a creative studio, rec room, or future ADU. Section 1 termite clearance is complete, so you can move right in and start enjoying your piece of California history before the holidays. Ideally located - just moments from the LA Memorial Coliseum, Natural History Museum, BMO Stadium, Exposition Park, and USC, with easy access to Downtown LA, the 110 & 10 freeways, and the Westside - this home offers the perfect blend of historic charm and city convenience.
