N/A, Los Angeles,

The Edwin L. Stanton Residence by Stanton, Reed & Hibbard (Hotel Figueroa DTLA). Located on a quiet, tree-lined street in the Windsor Square area (geohubcity.org) of Hancock Park, this gated English Cottage is steeped in charm. The home is nicely framed by a landscaped front garden and is surrounded by tall hedges offering privacy from the street. Abundant light throughout the house is one of its most endearing features. A formal living room with hardwood floors, a decorative fireplace, and French doors that open to a front patio with rose garden views add to its easy flow. A den is located just off the living room, providing additional space for daily living or entertaining. This could easily be enclosed to form 3rd bedroom or office. Bathed in natural light, the kitchen includes a classic built in breakfast nook, Sub-Zero and Wolf stainless steel appliances, ample cabinetry, and a conveniently adjacent laundry room. The hedged backyard is private and landscaped, with a large sun deck suited for relaxing or outdoor dining. A detached air conditioned flex space is entered thru French doors has been used as an office, gym, or studio. Experience some of L.A.'s best architecture as you make your way thru this idyllic neighborhood to Larchmont Village, a picture perfect street lined with local restaurants and shops. And, don't forget about the local farmer's market on Wednesdays and Sundays. This home presents a great opportunity to live in a well-established neighborhood with classic architectural character. Square footage of the home is 1,472 and the bonus space is 288.
