N/A, Culver City,

Welcome to this beautifully renovated Mid-Century home on a quiet, tree-lined street in the heart of Culver City. Thoughtfully remodeled throughout, this spacious residence features 3 bedrooms plus an office, a large formal living room, and a separate family room offering flexible living space that can easily adapt to your needs. The sun-filled living room showcases picture windows and sliding barn doors that provide privacy from the formal entry. This space can be easily enclosed to create a fourth bedroom, while the front office offers the option of a fifth bedroom. The home has been fully updated with new flooring, Milgard windows with custom window treatments, recessed LED lighting, updated plumbing, and a new central HVAC system for year-round comfort. At the heart of the home is a stunning gourmet kitchen with white shaker cabinetry, quartz countertops, and stainless-steel appliances. The dining area flows seamlessly into the spacious family room, where large sliding glass doors open to a covered patio perfect for indoor-outdoor dining and entertaining. All bathrooms have been beautifully remodeled, including the primary suite featuring an oversized shower and dual-sink vanity. Additional highlights include a dedicated laundry room with side-by-side washer and dryer, and a detached garage ideal for a home office, gym, or potential ADU. The grassy backyard is accented with rose bushes and a lemon tree, creating a peaceful outdoor retreat. Located near the Ballona Creek bike path, El Marino Elementary, and Sunkist Park, this exceptional Westside location offers easy access to shops, restaurants, downtown Culver City, and Playa Vista. This home truly feels brand new don't miss this Culver City gem.
