Tahquitz Creek Golf, Palm Springs,

Stunning mid-century home in Tahquitz Creek Golf community, a hidden gem in Palm Springs! This home was designed by iconic architect Donald Wexler, built in 1965, and is one of a few left in updated yet original condition. The current owners have updated what needed to be and have lovingly restored key features. Some of the key original features are: kitchen cabinets, cabinet hardware, stove top, oven, the amazing fireplace, bathroom cabinets, the roman shower in the primary bath, the atrium off the primary shower, the covered patio, the block walls, the rock walls and the pool. In addition a detached MCM inspired ADU/casita was added that can be a guest house or income producing. The ADU is 499 sq ft in size, features a living room, bedroom, kitchenette and bath. The main home features a living room, open to the dining room via a stunning stone wall, an oversized primary bedroom with sitting area, and 2 guest bedrooms, one was used as a Den. The outdoor spaces truly typify the Palm Springs lifestyle. Large, open rear yard, pool, spa, multiple lounging areas all looking towards golf course greens and fabulous mountain views. The finishing touches are owned solar, and desert friendly landscaping. A stunning home!

Built in 1965
