Renovated by renowned architecture firm Rios Clementi Hale, this contemporary single-story home is a rare offering on the golf course at Hancock Park's coveted Wilshire Country Club. Set behind a private entrance and lushly landscaped front yard, the residence unfolds with a sense of calm and modern California ease. With sightlines to the backyard, the entry opens into the spacious living room, with 20-foot ceilings that rise above a wood-burning fireplace, custom built-ins, and a wall of large sliding doors frame the sunny backyard, inviting effortless indoor-outdoor flow. The eat-in chef's kitchen serves as a warm gathering space, complete with bespoke finishes and an adjacent en-suite guest bedroom. On the other side of the house, the primary retreat is its own sanctuary, with expansive glass sliders, a spa-like bath with a soaking tub, and a large walk-in closet. Two additional en-suite bedrooms offer comfort and privacy for family or visitors. Outside, the generous yard embodies quintessential California living, with a heated saltwater pool, wood deck, and a covered pergola, ideal for outdoor dining. A detached guest house with its own bathroom extends the property's versatility, while the converted garage, currently outfitted as a screening room, provides even more possibility.
