Price Improvement!! Welcome home to this beautifully maintained home in the heart of West Sacramento. This three bedroom with one bathroom home offers over 1,600 square feet of living space along with a plenty of outdoor space. Inside you will find lots of light provided by the large picture window in front and beautiful wood grain and glass French doors leading out back. This property has true pride in ownership and even with all of its nostalgia, everything works and is move-in ready. The living room boasts a warm feel with all of the wood grain accents and wood burning fireplace tucked neatly away to allow for maximum space use. The kitchen is at the heart of the home and has a large footprint ready for that person ready to cook or enjoy the space. Upstairs is an additional bedroom/multi-use room perfect for living, crafts, projects, office, or even storage. The attached garage is perfect for a single care and has plenty of available space additional use or storage. The two main bedrooms share a well kept bathroom on the main level. This home is located on wide tree lined street just minutes from parks, schools, shopping, and dining. With easy access to major highways and downtown Sacramento, this home offers both convenience and comfort.
