SEQUOYAH HILLS, Oakland,

First time on the market ever for this classic and historic Eichler home built in 1965 and in wonderful original condition. Designed by legendary mid-century modern architect Claude Oakland, and assisted by Kenji Imada, one of the lesser known Eichler architects, yet very influential in the design of the Sequoia Hills Eichler community; also known as the "Land of the Lost Eichler's", with less than 50 Eichler homes total. Lovingly maintained by the original owners, this impressive 4 ample sized bedroom, 2 full bathroom home also has an impressive atrium entrance, gorgeous unpainted ceilings, wood burning brick fireplace, radiant heating, original cabinetry, original globe lighting, and original doors and hardware, a massive 2 car attached garage, utility room, and peek a boo westerly views of the Bay and Oakland hills.

Built in 1965
