RICHMOND ANNEX, Richmond,

Have you pondered or perhaps obsessed about the idea of building an ADU and poured over websites with a variety of ADU designs and then tabled the idea, because it seemed so overwhelming? Have you wished that you had a separate guest area, where visitors could stay, that did not share a bedroom wall with your bedroom, and/or a rental onsite that reduces expenses? If you are shaking your head affirmatively, this delightful home and fabulous ADU might be just what you have been dreaming about. Welcome to 5529 Huntington Ave, a charming, eclectic and unique property, close to numerous wonderful amenities, that blends traditional and modern aesthetics seamlessly. The main house, with its welcoming farmerâ€™s porch and beautifully landscaped front yard, features two bedrooms and one bath, a living room with random plank hardwood floors, large front casement windows, a sweet dining area with a new contemporary light fixture and a spacious, updated eat-in kitchen with a retro-inspired tile floor, sleek modern cabinetry and expansive counter space. Both bedrooms overlook the backyard. The permitted ADU, used by the owners as office and guest space, has a vaulted, wood-beamed ceiling, stunning views of Mount Tam, a built-in Murphy bed, two built-in desks & a very cool & luxurious full bath.
