Located on a peaceful one-way street in Oakland's beloved Rockridge neighborhood, 5161 & 5159 Coronado is a newly updated 1920s bungalow-style duplex that blends timeless charm, modern upgrades, and endless potential. The main unit features an open-concept living and dining area with classic matchstick hardwood floors, two bedrooms connected by a Jack-and-Jill bath, and a reimagined kitchen with treetop views and all-new cabinetry, counters, lighting, and flooring. Both bathrooms were remodeled in 2022 and 2024. Down the side stairs, discover one of the coziest 1BD/1BA unit west of College Ave. It mirrors the main home's vintage character with original matchstick floors, Douglas fir kitchen flooring, charming vintage tile, wall-mounted kitchen faucet, and even a built-in ironing board cabinet. And then there's everything else. A large, level backyard offers exciting potential for added housing or an unforgettable garden retreat. Below the second unit: tons of storage. And at the base of the lot? A huge parking pad and single-story 3-car garage with street-to-street access. Whether you're an investor or dreamer, this is a rare Rockridge opportunity to create a sweet little compound in one of Oakland's most sought-after neighborhoods.
