ALBANY, Albany,

This beautifully remodeled three-bedroom, two-bath home in Albany, built by Charles MacGregor, seamlessly blends modern amenities with classic Mediterranean architecture, prioritizing comfort and versatility. Picturesque scenery through a large front window enhance the inviting living room, creating an ideal space for entertaining and relaxation. Open archways, a chic light fixture and natural light brighten the dining room, which features an open layout that showcases the home's contemporary design with period matchstick hardwood floors. An outstanding chef's kitchen includes quartz countertops, top-of-the-line stainless steel appliances, and designer tile flooring, making cooking a pleasure. The spacious bedrooms on the upper level are adjacent to a spa-like bathroom with designer tile, hex marble, a custom glass shower, and an exquisite vanity. A true sanctuary, the level backyard features two sitting areas with a luxurious plant variety including passion flower vines, fuchsia, Peruvian lilies, lavender, as well as mature landscaping, perfect for outdoor dining or soaking up the California sun. Convenience is further enhanced by an attached garage with interior access. Located within the highly sought-after K-12 Albany School District, this exceptional property is a true gem!
