Residential on 0 Acres

CENTRAL ALAMEDA, Alameda,

Timeless character meets walkable convenience in this beautifully preserved 1924 craftsman home. Ideally located on one of Alameda's rare closed thru streets, that is peaceful and private. Step inside to gleaming original hardwood floors, rich in warmth and detail. The inviting formal living room features a classic wood-burning fireplace, surrounded by built-in cabinetry and wood-framed windows that flood the space with natural light.

Entertain in style in the formal dining room, accented with original moldings and built-ins, offering a perfect blend of charm and function. The layout flows seamlessly into a thoughtfully designed kitchen with breakfast nook & garden window. This home showcases the craftsmanship of its era, with built-in shelving, solid wood doors and period trim work throughout. Each detail speaks to the pride of ownership and quality rarely found in newer homes. Enjoy the calm and community feel where neighbors stroll and traffic stays away, yet you're just minutes from Park Street dining, coffee shops, local markets and the shoreline. Outside, the backyard is a hidden gem, ideal for outdoor dining, gardening, or relaxing under the trees. Step down into a surprisingly expansive basement-level garage with an extended depth that runs the length of the home.

Built in 1924
