CROCKER HIGHLANDS, Oakland,

Beautifully restored 1923 Crocker Highlands bungalow where timeless architecture meets elevated modern living. The striking off-black exterior, framed by lush perennial gardens, pairs with a new driveway, porch, retaining walls, and solid white oak front door—offering a preview of the quality inside. Owned and cherished by the same family for 13 years, it underwent major renovations in 2018–2019, both inside and out, including structural, electrical, and a new roof. Renovated for an architect and her family, every improvement reflects thoughtful design and enduring quality. At its heart, the chef’s kitchen features locally crafted cabinetry, handcrafted hood surround, quartz counters, Fireclay tile backsplash, oversized breakfast bar, GE Monogram appliances, and Zephyr hood—flowing seamlessly to the dining area for effortless entertaining. Sunlight pours through Marvin windows, illuminating crisp white walls and a bay-windowed living room overlooking a graceful Golden Locust tree. Three bedrooms and two updated bathrooms on the main level (which includes a primary suite), plus finished attic with bath and storage. Landscaped backyard, long tandem driveway with car charger. Move right in and live the magazine-worthy lifestyle.

Built in 1923
