ALAMEDA, Alameda,

Historic beauty, modern soul. One of Alameda's earliest Eastlake Victorians, this single level jewel shimmers with timeless grace. From the moment you cross the threshold, you're greeted by soaring ceilings, period light fixtures, and intricate mouldings from another era. Yet behind the beauty, this home embraces modern living with a remodeled, galley style kitchen with open dining and living space. Flexible spaces allow you to live as two or three bedrooms via a custom Murphy bed tucked neatly away. The garden feels like a private retreat with a shady patio and a bonus studio/office that feels like a secret hideaway. This home balances history and heart. Just blocks from Park Street shops and cafes, this is where you will not just live but belong -the romance of yesterday, ready for today

Built in 1882
