SEQUOYAH HILLS, Oakland,

This one-of-a-kind estate captures the timeless spirit of mid-century modern architecture infused with Japanese design sensibility - clean lines, natural light, and harmony with nature. Walls of glass and wood paneling dissolve boundaries between indoors and out, framing tranquil views of the surrounding landscape; skylights fill the interiors with natural light. Distinct yet fluid living spaces include open living and dining areas and a lounge with a built-in bar and stereo cabinet opening to a spacious, covered patio for effortless indoor-outdoor living and entertaining. Stone-faced exterior walls extend seamlessly into the patio and lounge, blurring the line between structure and landscape. The kitchen gleams with quartz countertops and Bosch appliances, and the spa-like baths feature teak cabinetry and designer fixtures. The primary suite opens to a private garden and a sunlit patio. Set on a quiet cul-de-sac near regional parks, this is a home of timeless elegance.
