LAUREL, Oakland,

Laurelâ€™s got a rhythm all its own, laid-back, walkable, and quietly cool. Tucked along one of its most beloved leafy streets, this two-bedroom, one-and-a-half-bath home brings the vibe. From the sidewalk, it already charms: fresh paint, curated drought-friendly landscaping, and a sweet simplicity that just feels right. Step inside to soaring ceilings with exposed dark wood beams, where light pours through a dramatic cathedral window, washing across the refinished hardwood floors. The layout flows effortlessly, with just the right balance between communal and private spaces. The kitchen is newly refreshed, featuring a built-in desk nook and ample space for your favorite culinary tools. Out back, a sun-warmed yard is anchored by a 25+ year-old Coastal Redwood, casting shade, privacy, and a daily dose of calm. The deck is just right for dinner and drinks, while a detached bonus structureâ€™once a music studioâ€™adds two rooms and a half bath ready for whateverâ€™s next: home office, gym, or guest suite. And then thereâ€™s Laurel itself. Morning walks to Santana Coffee. Pints at Ghost Town. Dinner at Joâ€™s Modern Thai. Fresh produce at Farmer Joeâ€™s. Trailheads. Dog parks. Rooted, flexible, and quietly special. This is everyday life, distinctly Laurel.
