CRESTWOOD, Concord,

Looking to put down roots? This long-loved home is ready for its next chapter. It has that instant “this feels right” energy, and once you layer in your own touches, it’s the kind of place that sticks with you for years. A generous living room and a separate family room give you options for gatherings of all kinds. The kitchen is where everyone naturally drifts, and the roomy dining area gives the cook a fighting chance to shoo the crowd out while they work. The lot is wide open for play, gardening, parties, or all of the above. There’s RV parking with hookups, plus a spa just outside the primary bedroom that’s perfectly private for end-of-day unwinding. This was the cool house for decades. Time to grab the mantel and keep that streak going.

Built in 1963
