This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to own a piece of History. This property is a designated landmark with the City of West Covina on the market for the first time in over 50 years. Built in 1894 this Farmhouse Craftsman has many original features intact. So much potential here to make this your Vintage dream home. The home boasts large rooms, hardwood floors, original built-ins in the living room and dining room. There are lots of windows offering natural lighting. The fireplace in the living room has a beautiful wood mantel and built-ins on either side. The formal dining room has original unpainted wainscoting and a built-in china cabinet. The first floor consists of formal living and dining rooms, a den, an office, a large kitchen, a service porch and a bathroom with a walk-in shower. The second floor consists of four bedrooms, the primary is large, it has two walk-in closets, and the other three bedrooms have access to the original sleeping porches. The second bath is upstairs. The home is situated on a large double lot, set back from the street with an expansive backyard that has a pool/spa and fruit trees. There is a two-car detached garage that has been used as a studio. The home is just one of a few that the City has deemed potentially eligible for listing on the National and California register of Historic Places according to a publication in 2006.
