Charming Craftsman-Style Home in Prime Los Angeles Location

Welcome to this delightful Craftsman-style home nestled in the heart of Los Angeles, offering timeless character and endless possibilities. Per county records, the home features 2 bedrooms and 1 bathroom, but with unpermitted additions made prior to the seller's ownership, it now functions as a 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home—including a converted attic space that serves as a spacious bedroom and studio area. Additionally, an extra room and bathroom at the rear provide even more flexibility.

Step onto the inviting front porch, perfect for enjoying your morning coffee or unwinding in the evenings. The long driveway provides ample parking for multiple vehicles, leading to a detached garage that has been converted into a room but can easily be restored to its original use.

Inside, the home showcases original hardwood floors, intricate wood trim around windows, doors, and the fireplace, as well as a built-in buffet cabinet in the dining area. The kitchen offers ample counter space and wood cabinetry, ready for your personal touch. Off the living room, a versatile bonus room—currently used as a large pantry—can be transformed into an office, guest room, or extra storage space.

Situated in a prime Los Angeles location, this home is just minutes from USC, the Natural History Museum, BMO Stadium, Exposition Park, Kia Forum, shopping, dining, and major freeways. With so much potential in such a desirable area, this is an opportunity you won't want to miss!
