N/A, Hesperia,

"Welcome to this charming pool home that is energy efficient with a paid solar system. Situated on a half-acre with plenty of shade trees and views of the Marianas and Apple Valley Highlands from the front yard, this property features a spacious living area with numerous windows that flood the interior with natural light, creating a bright and airy atmosphere. A wood-burning stove adds a cozy touch for those cool winter nights. The centrally located kitchen boasts Travertine flooring, granite countertops, and plenty of cabinetry and counter space. The family area offers ample room to host family and friends and has a wood-burning stove and views of the sparkling pool. It also provides easy access to the private pool area with a built-in BBQ and seating areas. The backyard offers plenty of outdoor space, perfect for toys and gardening. Additionally, a built-in shed provides storage to keep your space organized and clutter-free. This property offers comfort and relaxation with its serene surroundings and ample outdoor space.

Built in 1978
