N/A, Los Angeles,

Introducing 6508 Repton in the Historic Garvanza Enclave of Highland Park just steps from Garvanza Park and York blvds Creative Energy. This 1922 character-rich home features a classic facade with original restored front windows. The front door opens to reveal hardwood floors, a sunbathed living space that illuminates every corner, a fireplace framed with custom book shelves, and a vibrant open layout. The dining room features restored built in cabinetry, original crown molding, and a work station that peaks out to a spacious front yard. Two bedrooms offer a quiet retreat from the world, the refreshed bathroom design becomes a space for reflection and pause from the daily rhythm. The kitchen offers more utility with additional seating and convenient wash station. This is not just a house; it is a place to root down and blossom. It's where creativity collides with history and the serenity of a private retreat. The home has copper plumbing, upgraded electrical panel, great roof, and a detached 1 car garage.
