Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Claremont,

This architectural estate designed by Everett Tozier stands as one of Claremont's most remarkable residences. Elevated above the city, it showcases uninterrupted vistas across rolling hillsides, rugged mountain peaks, and twinkling valley lights. Every aspect of the grounds and residence has been designed to impress, with distinctive architectural style. Padua Hills was the heart of Claremont's art scene in the mid-20th century, making it fitting that this home is a true work of art. The approach is defined by an expansive gated courtyard where lush gardens frame a custom stained-glass entry door, offering an immediate sense of artistry and distinction. Inside, panoramic views draw you toward the back deck and nature beyond. The living room rises with vaulted wood-beamed ceilings and floor-to-ceiling glass, filling the space with natural light and breathtaking views. Custom cabinetry and a sculpted fireplace add warmth, while a built-in window nook captures the hillside setting in quiet reflection. The dining room provides an intimate setting for gatherings, complemented by a concealed wet bar and a picture window overlooking the courtyard garden. Adjacent lies the showpiece kitchen reimagined by Hartman Baldwin—honored as "Kitchen of the Year" by Remodel Magazine in 2004. It features Sub-Zero refrigeration, a built-in gas cooktop, and an oversized island that serves as both prep space and breakfast bar. A dramatic skylight crowns the room, while a tile mosaic backsplash and extensive cabinetry elevate its design and function. Just off the kitchen, a mudroom offers a tall wine refrigerator, washer and dryer, and abundant storage. The residence includes three spacious bedrooms and three bathrooms, each with its own character. One bedroom serves as an exceptional home office with built-ins and a custom desk. The primary suite is a retreat unto itself, oriented toward panoramic hillside and mountain views. A lounge area invites peaceful mornings and sunset views. A walk-in closet and expansive vanity add luxury, while the ensuite bath features a stone-clad walk-in shower and custom stained glass—both dramatic and timeless. A vast deck extends from the main level, perfectly positioned to capture views that transform throughout the day. The in-ground spa and mosaic art installation add artistry to the outdoor setting. With uninterrupted mountain ridgeline and city light views, this estate stands as a legacy home in one of Claremont’s most sought-after enclaves.
