Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Ontario,

RARE OPPORTUNITY!! Welcome to 405 E Harvard Place, perfectly positioned at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac on one of North Ontario's most picturesque, tree-lined streets.

Surrounded by charming historic homes and located adjacent to the iconic Graber Olive House, this property offers a rare blend of timeless character and modern comfort. From the moment you arrive, the setting feels special – quaint, peaceful, and rich in architectural charm. Mature Olive trees, lush grass and custom exterior paint give this home its curb appeal. Inside, the home showcases beautifully preserved original wood floors, classic built-ins, 2 cozy fireplaces and original doors that reflect the craftsmanship of a bygone era. Natural light fills the living spaces, highlighting the warmth and authenticity that make historic homes so desirable. While the character remains intact, the important upgrades have already been completed. The kitchen has been fully remodeled with white shaker cabinetry, quartz countertops, stainless steel appliances, and updated fixtures – thoughtfully designed to complement the home's classic style. The 2 bathrooms have also been tastefully renovated, blending modern finishes with period-inspired details. All 4 bedrooms are generous in size, have ample closet space and ceiling fans. The backyard is private, has mature trees, a sprinkler system- ready for your imagination. The detached two car garage allows for storage, parking or even an ADU! Additional improvements include a brand-new HVAC system, fresh interior paint throughout, smooth ceilings and recessed lighting providing comfort and peace of mind. Convenient indoor laundry adds everyday functionality without compromising charm. This home offers the best of both worlds – original architectural details you simply cannot replicate, paired with the modern systems and upgrades today’s buyers expect. A rare opportunity to own a piece of history in one of the neighborhood’s most sought-after locations.
