N/A, Mariposa,

The perfect home, at the perfect elevation, maintained to perfection. Be sure to put this home on your list of properties to tour in Mariposa County. Located in Jerseydale area, a proud, friendly and helpful community that lives at just about 4000 ft. in elevation. The Jerseydale area is known for its towering trees, peacefulness, cooler weather and above average rainfall. Previously known for apple orchards and gold mining: the streams were first mined during the gold rush, and the lode deposits were discovered soon afterward. The picture of the house showcases its simple perfection in design and architecture, and you must experience this home in person to feel its love. The home and property are set up to work perfectly as a full-time residence or a vacation home getaway. On-site generator, detached garage, and natural landscaping. The covered and screened deck on the east side of the house offers the first light of day, a cool bug free lounge for great conversations and your favorite beverage in the evening. Don't save on this one; Schedule an appointment now!
