Peaceful Mountain Retreat with Views on 5.46 Acres

Beautiful, well-cared for tri-level custom home with picturesque views, situated above the 3,000 ft elevation on a serene 5.46-acre park-like setting. This 3 bedroom, 2 bath, 2,210 sq. ft. home offers both comfort and character, with covered front and rear decks perfect for enjoying the outdoors in every season. Inside, you'll find an EPA-compliant freestanding woodstove on a raised rock hearth, a whole-house fan, and a zoned HVAC system for year-round efficiency and comfort. An automatic backup generator runs the entire home for added peace of mind, plus a gravity fed 2500 gal water storage tank. For added fire defense, lava rock landscaping is added. The kitchen features self-closing cabinet doors and drawers with easy pull-outs, granite countertops, a garden window, and quality name-brand appliances including a Bosch dishwasher and JennAir appliances. Engineered wood flooring flows through the main living areas, and a special slate entryway creates a warm welcome. Anderson double-pane windows bring in abundant natural light, and Anderson exterior doors add a quality finish throughout. The dining room and primary bedroom both feature large bay windows with built-in bench seating and extra storage underneath. The primary suite also enjoys its own private balcony overlooking the beautifully landscaped yard. The home showcases open-beam knotty pine high ceilings with cedar accents, along with special-cut cedar exterior siding for a distinctive mountain lodge feel. Outside, you'll appreciate the landscaped front yard, fenced back yard with lawn, and an asphalt driveway with approximately 15' x 60' space for RV parking. A newer composition roof (less than 3 years old), complete with rain gutters, adds to the home's value and low-maintenance appeal.

Wildlife is a regular part of life here, this is true mountain living. All of this is conveniently located near Bass Lake, Yosemite National Park, and just minutes from downtown Oakhurst.
