Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

Welcome to 5105 Buchanan St a fully reimagined modern residence in the heart of Highland Park. Taken down to the studs and rebuilt with care, craftsmanship, and quality, this home feels brand-new from top to bottom. Every detail was thoughtfully designed to offer long-term comfort, efficiency, and style.

Step inside to an open, bright floor plan featuring all-new interiors, including a brand-new kitchen with custom cabinetry, new doors and energy-efficient Title 24 windows, and high-quality finishes that create a fresh, contemporary feel. The builder spared no expense in updating the major systems: new electrical wiring with a 200-amp panel, new HVAC system, new plumbing throughout, and all-new insulation for year-round efficiency and comfort.

Outside, the home continues to shine with a new roof, new stucco exterior, and new perimeter fencing providing both privacy and security. A newly poured concrete driveway offers clean, ample parking and adds to the home's curb appeal.

Located in one of L.A.'s most sought-after neighborhoods, this home puts you right in the heart of Highland Park's vibrant lifestyle. Just minutes from trendsetting York Boulevard and Figueroa Street, you'll enjoy walkable access to beloved cafÃ©s, restaurants, boutique shops, parks, music venues, and local community favorites. Highland Park offers a rare blend of creativity, culture, and neighborhood charm—where weekend strolls, farmers markets, and unique local businesses make every day feel inspired.

A rare opportunity to own a completely rebuilt home in a community known for its energy, character, and growth. Truly turnkey, beautifully finished, and perfectly positioned for modern Eastside living.
