Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Riverside,

This exquisite 1916 Arts & Crafts home, reminiscent of Pasadena's finest, is a true architectural gem nestled in one of Riverside's most desirable neighborhoods -- "The Wood Streets". Showcasing timeless craftsmanship, this stunning residence seamlessly blends timeless details with modern enhancements, and the remodeled kitchen is nothing short of fabulous, designed for both everyday living and grand entertaining, while the formal dining room, complete with the original built-in buffet, exudes character and elegance. The living room boasts a gas and wood-burning fireplace, with arts & crafts touches everywhere. A sunroom, bathed in natural light, provides the perfect retreat for relaxation. The bathroom has been tastefully remodeled, and there is a half bath in the garage. The home also boasts central air/heat, updated electrical and electrical panel, copper plumbing, and a 2-yr-old roof. Step outside to the beautiful backyard which is nothing short of breathtaking -- an outdoor paradise with a charming gazebo, a spacious covered patio perfect for gathering guests, and lush landscaping that feels like your own private retreat. Adding to its versatility, the home includes a basement and a detached garage, which already boasts a half bath and could easily be transformed into a stylish ADU. This remarkable home is a rare opportunity to own a piece of history with modern comforts in an unparalleled location. The expansive front porch, framed by impressive large pillars, creates a warm and inviting entrance with the original extra wide front door while offering the perfect space to relax and take in the picturesque views of the neighborhood. This incredible space serves as a true extension of the home’s beauty and character.
