In the heart of Lake Arrowhead, this Mid Century 1960â€™s cottage offers authentic character and thoughtful upgrades.

Surrounded by mature pines, the warm and inviting residence retains much of its original charm, sitting in a secluded enclave of the desirable lanes community, just a short distance to the lake. A compelling dark exterior is the inviting quality. Beyond the level entry and front porch, the living room displays charming original details, beamed ceilings and a cozy brick fireplace. The spacious, light-filled dining room seamlessly connects to the open kitchen, complete with a restored O'Keefe and Merritt oven. Directly connected through a windowed door is an expansive wrap around deck, perfectly situated for all day outdoor living and is a private oasis ideal for dining, lounging and enjoying the soaring native trees. A light filled bedroom with an adjacent bathroom is tucked away on the first level. The laundry area with loads of storage completes the main floor. Upstairs offers two additional bedrooms, one of which is oversized with options for many different uses and has vaulted ceilings with multiple windows and a walk in closet. A second full bath is perfectly appointed in vintage finishes. Returning outside, the ample sized lot offers flat space with a built out fire pit lounge, more space for hanging and enjoying the forest views.
