N/A, Big Bear Lake,

Enveloped by a quiet grove of mature pines and backing to a seasonal ravine—perfect for sledding in the snowy months—this Moonridge chalet invites you to slow down, breathe deep, and settle into mountain life. Located under 1 mile (0.9 miles) from Bear Mountain Ski Resort and Golf Course and just a mile from the Big Bear Alpine Zoo, this retreat blends mountain access with an atmosphere of stillness. Set along a peaceful stretch of Sheephorn Road—one of Moonridge’s most loved pockets—you’re also minutes from Moonridge Coffee, trailheads, and the newly improved Moonridge Corridor. Inside, warm wood tones wrap the living space in a nostalgic glow, with vaulted ceilings overhead and a fire crackling in the wood-burning stove. The cozy layout features a Cal King loft retreat upstairs and a full-size Murphy bed tucked neatly away downstairs—offering flexibility for hosting guests or creating a charming vacation rental. The built-in dining nook is framed by windows that bring the forest-like setting in, creating a space that feels both intimate and inviting. Original wood details throughout lend texture and character, offering a timeless sense of place without pretense. Step outside and you’ll find one of the best features of all—a spacious deck shaded by towering pines and overlooking the quiet ravine, perfect for morning coffee, late-night stargazing, or watching snowflakes drift to the ground. There’s also a convenient storage shed and off-street parking for multiple vehiclesâ€”ideal for weekenders, outdoor gear, or seasonal living. Whether you're looking for a quiet escape, a soulful investment, or a basecamp for every season, this one feels different.
