N/A, Redlands,

Great opportunity in South Redlands walking distance to downtown shops and dining! This property offers all the charms of a classic Redlands home, with room to make it your own! The entry begins at a spacious front porch, great to accommodate a bench or small table and chairs for enjoying your morning coffee. Enter into a light and bright living room featuring original bay windows. Home features wood flooring throughout. The first bedroom branches off the living room, and a formal dining room sits between the living room and kitchen space. The two additional bedrooms both connect to the pass through bathroom with a clawfoot tub and characteristic tile and wall paneling. An expansive yard would be ideal for building a pool or enjoying a garden; there is also great potential for an ADU or a sizable garage! On the side of the home, a gated covered carport is wired for electric car charging. The location is directly across the street from the YMCA, and just down the street from Citrone Italian Chophouse.
