With 3 generous-sized bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, and over 2,100 sq ft of living space on nearly a quarter-acre lot, this residence blends vintage character with comfort. Inside, you'll find original hardwood floors (with some brand new laminate), a spacious vintage kitchen with real wood cabinetry, a dishwasher, and a cozy nook for casual dining. A separate family room with a fireplace and original built-ins, overlooks the serene backyard, creating the perfect setting for relaxation or entertaining. Central air/heat, pocket doors, and an original sound system in all the rooms too. Step outside to discover a tranquil retreat complete with a gazebo, fruit trees, RV parking, and alley access. The oversized two-car garage features an additional permitted workshop attached to the back side which is ideal for extra storage, a catio, or even a small guest quarters -- offering endless possibilities. The location is unmatched: walking distance to a supermarket, Mt. Rubidoux hiking trails, and Magnolia Elementary School, while just a short

The canopy of mature trees lends the street a timeless charm, evoking the feeling of strolling through a shaded New England lane, with character at every turn. And for the grand finaleâ€”this home offers front-row seats to the Mt. Rubidoux fireworks show every 4th of July, right from your own backyard.
